Genoua, June 16. N. S.

SIgnior Girolamo Mari, whom our Senate lately made Choice of to be their Doge, has taken Poſſeſſion of that Dignity, and thereupon received the uſual Compliments. On the 10th Inſtant, the Prince of Monaco, who is going with the Character of Ambaſſador from the Moſt Chriſtian King to the Pope, arrived in this Port with 4 French Galleys; He was ſaluted by the Cannon of this Place, and the Maſter of the Ceremonies, with ſeveral Deputies from the Senate, were ſent to Compliment him; The Duke of Turſis alſo ſent him a Compliment by one of his Gentlemen; He ſtayed here till the 13th, and then continued his Voyage to Civita-Vecchia. A Squadron of fifteen French Galleys are ſhortly expected here from Marſeilles, deſigning to paſs along this Coaſt as far as Meſſina; and we hear, another Squadron of 8 French Galleys are ordered to ſail towards the Coaſt of Spain. One of the Galleys belonging to this Republick is ſent to Thoulon, to wait for the Arrival of Signior Juſtiniani, who is returning from England, where he reſided with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from this Republick.

Turin, June 14. The Marquis d'Urfe, Envoy Extraordinary from the Moſt Chriſtian King to Congratulate the Duke and Dutcheſs of Savoy on the Birth of the Prince of Piedmont, had Audience of their Royal Highneſſes yeſterday; The Marquis de Pluvault, who is come hither with the like Commiſſion from the Duke of Orleans, has alſo had Audience of the Duke and Dutcheſs. Their Royal Highneſſes have likewiſe received the Compliment of the Prince of Vaudemont by the Count de Perro, who is ſince returned to Milan. The Magiſtrates of this Place, and the Deputies from the Magiſtrates of Chambery, Nice, and Pigueral, have alſo paid their Compliments to the Dutcheſs of Savoy, and made her the uſual Preſents on this occaſion.

Milan, June 17. The Senate here have made Applications to the Prince of Vaudemont our Governor, that the Swiſs Troops now in the King of Spain's Service in this Dutchy may be ſent home, and offer to pay the Arrears that are due to them, amounting to above 200000 Crowns; part whereof they will pay as ſoon as they ſhall have begun their March, and the reſt afterwards by Monthly Payments; This Propoſal was well received by his Highneſs, who has writ about it to the Court of Spain. Baron Roſt, Envoy from the Emperor to the Swiſs Cantons, is come hither from Switzerland to confer with our Governor. The Abbot of Darmſtad is arrived here from Spain in his return to Rome. The Count of Berlips is likewiſe come hither from Madrid, and will be going in few days towards Vienna, where he is to make the King of Spain's Compliment of Congratulation to the King and Queen of the Romans on their Marriage. The Marquis de Parella arrived here laſt Saturday from Turin, and having paid his Reſpects to the Prince of Vaudemont, he continued his Journey the next day to Mantua.

Venice, June 20. The Senate having reſolved to exclude from their Aſſembly all the Noblemen, whoſe Relations enjoy any Offices or Benefices depending on the Pope, or who receive any Penſions, or other Gratifications from the Court of Rome; This Matter was brought before the Great Council at their laſt Meeting for their Approbation, but after a long Debate, it was rejected by a Majority of Votes. A Merchant Ship is lately come in here, which met off Ragoſa the laſt Convoy that ſailed from hence for the Levant. Our Advices from Dalmatia ſay, the Commiſſioners who are met at Sternazzo, on the Borders of that Province, to ſettle the Limits between the Venetian and Turkiſh Dominions, continue their Conferences with good Succeſs; The Venetian Commiſſioner, Signior Grimani, has writ a Letter to the Senate, to inform them that he had received one from Count Marſigli, the Emperor's Commiſſioner for ſettling the Limits in Hungary, ſignifying that the Emperor his Maſter expects the Republick of Venice ſhould yield to him the Town of Obroazzo, ſituate on the Frontiers of Dalmatia bordering on Croatia, as was ſtipulated by the Treaty of Alliance between the Emperor and this Republick; upon which the Senate has been extraordinarily aſſembled, and an Expreſs is ſent to Vienna with Inſtructions to the Venetian Ambaſſador at that Court touching this Matter.

Warſaw, June 22. The Diet have not yet choſen a new Marſhal or Speaker; And in the mean time the Staroſt of Minsky (who was Marſhal of the former Diet) diſcharges this Office according to Cuſtom. The King has let them know, that the greateſt part of the German Forces are already on their March home, and that he has ſent Orders to haſten them; But the Deputies deſire that the Regiments, which are now quartered in and near this City, may likewiſe be ſent away, before they proceed to the Choice of a new Marſhal; And that the Pacta Conventa may be laid before the Diet. The Cardinal Primate is returned from Siliſia to Lowitz, the Place of his uſual Reſidence, and is expected here in few days.

Vienna, June 24. The Imperial Court is returned hither from Luxembourg. Cardinal Colonitz is come to this Place from Presburgh, and has waited upon the Emperor, to give him an Account of the State of Affairs in Hungary. The Baron of Holtzy, of one of the ancienteſt Families in Sileſia, is made a Count of the Empire. The Baron of Keſſelſtadt is arrived here with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Ments. Our Advices from Hungary ſay, ſeveral Regiments of the Imperial Troops are marching towards the Frontiers, to be employed in diſmantling the Places which are to be reſtored to the Turks.

Bruſſels, July 7. The Count de Guiſcard, Ambaſſador from the Moſt Chriſtian King to the Court of Sweden, who lately arrived here from Paris, waited upon the Elector of Bavaria on Monday laſt, and the next day proceeded on his Journey. The Baron de Palavicini, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Savoy, had his Audience of Leave of his Electoral Highneſs on Monday, and
